MESSAGE FROM RABBI LISA DELSON

It is going to take a long time for the Jewish world to process what happened in Israel on October 7th. Since that day Israel has changed, Gaza has changed, Israel-American relations have changed, antisemitism around the world has changed, as have we. Listening to an interview on a podcast called Unholy: Two Jews in the News with one of the top journalists in Israel, Ilana Dayan, she said, that “today is still October 7th and every day since then is and every day until all of the hostages are released will it be October 7th.” I lived in Israel in 2000 and 2004, when we were learning about the bus bombings during the Second Intifada, I always heard the message that yes, these things happen and we just keep moving along with our lives. Unfortunately, that mindset seems to have shifted after the attack in October because everyone is related to someone or knows someone who has died or who has been called up for duty. Israel is still reeling and the entire region is suffering.

This moment is also different in terms of the narratives being disseminated through all streams of media. I do not want to cede my column’s space to the hatred that is out there. This month, I want to share a list of websites, articles, Instagram and TikTok handles of people who are discussing the war in Israel with a level head, who are reporting thoroughly and thoughtfully.

If you would like to read and learn more about Israel along with me, I am hosting two book conversations about the book by Noa Tishby, an Israeli actress and advocate, A Simple Guide to the Most Misunderstood Country on Earth. Please find this book and join me either on Zoom on February 6 at 2pm or in person, at the temple on February 7 at 7pm.

May this new year of 2024 bring peace to all those who are suffering.

WINTER COLLEGE REUNION AT TEMPLE

January 4
7-8:30pm

Invite your college student to temple to reconnect with old friends, meet Rabbi Delson, and have a little something to eat. This is a great way to connect and re-charge before heading back to college. Please share with the college students in your lives. RSVP to Rabbi Delson rabbidelson@templese.com by December 29.

Martin Luther King, Jr. Shabbat

On January 12 at 6pm, we will once again welcome guests to our congregation to celebrate the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. We will join together with special guests the Toledo Choral Society, Reverend John Walthall and members of Mt. Ararat Baptist Church, and others for an inclusive Shabbat service followed by a musical tribute and oneg Shabbat following services. In today's atmosphere of rising intolerance, let us join together to continue to work for peace for all.

Shabbat Shirah

On January 26 at 6pm join us for a special Shabbat Shirah service. We will celebrate the Torah portion when the Israelites cross the sea to freedom, and sing the Song of the Sea, by chanting Torah during our Friday evening service so everyone can experience the beauty of this unique section of the Torah. Join us for this special service!

Torah Today

Saturday, January 20
9:30-10:30am

Let my people go! Join Rabbi Delson for a study of Parashat Bo, part of the story of Passover. We will take an in-depth look at the Torah text, what the Rabbis had to say about it, and how it relates to us today. Bagels and coffee will be served.

The Gift of Mindfulness

Wednesday, January 31 at 7pm

Join us for the Temple's mindfulness program. We will explore different dimensions of mindfulness practice - different kinds of meditation, Jewish text study, small group conversations, and real-life practices that you can carry into your everyday life.

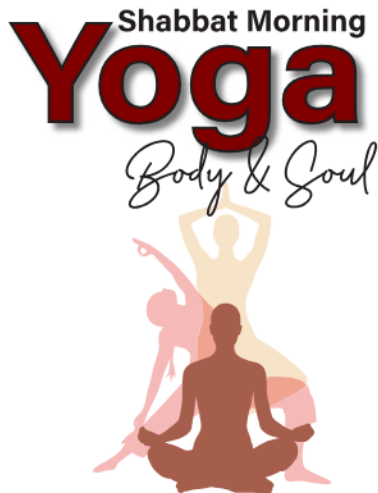

You can join in person OR join on Zoom:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/84846532374?pwd=LKiF7ObUijtgbTb0fJPMJlT5BqZaTF.1>

Meeting ID: 848 4653 2374 Passcode: 114011

This class is designed so that each session stands alone. There is no need to commit, and you can come to any single session at any time. The class is appropriate for teens and adults, and it is my hope that learning these practices will not only enrich your spiritual life, but your daily life, your relationships with your loved ones and with others in our Temple community.

Living a mindful life is about understanding yourself and your actions and reactions better, so that when you go out into the world you are able to engage more thoughtfully and calmly, and so better to discern the best way to move forward. The practices we will learn together will help you slow down and change your perspective on your own life, so that you are able to act with more wisdom and compassion as you move through the world. We will do all this while deepening our connections to Jewish teaching and spiritual practice.

Join Amy Nistel and Cantor Jen Roher on

Saturday, January 27 at 10:30am

The class is for all levels, using a chair or a mat, whichever is most appropriate for you. No experience needed.

Start your Shabbat morning with a rejuvenating spiritual practice that will give you a renewed sense of peace.

Deadline for scholarship application is Wednesday, February 1, 2024

Once again, the Temple Board, W.A.T.S. and Temple Brotherhood have set aside some money for campers who are attending Jewish camps this summer. The camper MUST meet the following criteria:

- 1) Applicant must be a member in good standing of the Temple.
- 2) Applicant must be enrolled in and meet attendance requirements for the Temple Religious School during the year of the request.
- 3) Request must be for attendance at a URJ camp, or any other non-denominational Jewish camp (i.e., JCC run camp)
- 4) Must be an overnight camp.
- 5) Applicant must submit request in writing by February 1, 2024

Religious School News

Thank you to Learning Express and all of the community members that participated in give a gift this year. Everyone was extremely generous and we were able to help 185 children enjoy the holidays a little bit more.

I hope everyone had a restful break and were able to recharge and spend time with family. As a reminder Hebrew school classes resume on Wednesday, January 10 and religious school starts on Sunday, January 21.

Our Shinshinim will visit again this month. They will be here for Shabbat on January, 19 and stay through religious school on January, 21. Here are some pictures from last month's visit.

Sunday, January, 21 is the next time that temple tots will meet. The theme for January is One, Two, Three Tu B'Shevat. We hope that you can join Rabbi Delson and Miss Alison for some activities all about trees. The class will be held in the tot room beginning at 9:30am.

We hope you can join us for a PJ Havdalah on January, 27. We will have fun activities, hot chocolate and more! We encourage kids (and adults if they wish) to wear their pj's and bring a favorite stuffed animal. See save the date to the right for more information

Introduction to Judaism and Hebrew

Thursdays beginning January 11 | 7-9pm

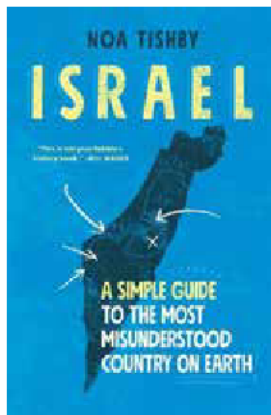

Join Rabbi Delson for an inclusive and engaging way to learn more about Judaism and brush up on your prayerbook Hebrew. Each class will offer one hour of the basics of Judaism and one hour of Hebrew. This class is great for anyone who is interested in converting to Judaism, anyone in an interfaith relationship regardless of conversion, and anyone who wants to know why Jewish holidays fall on a different day each year. Registration is required by December 27. Open to members and non-members. The cost of the class is $36 to cover the cost of the book. For questions contact Rabbi Delson at rabbidelson@templese.com.

To register call or email Wendy Payne wpayne@templese.com

Congregational Read about Israel

A Simple Guide to the Most Misunderstood Country on Earth by Noa Tishby

Israel has been a topic of conversation before and since October 7. Let's explore this book about Israeli history and politics and discuss. Rabbi Delson will lead two discussions, one Zoom only and one in-person only. Pick up the book wherever books are sold or from the library and let's discuss.

February 6 2pm, Zoom only, link will be shared with registration

February 7 7pm, in-person only

RSVP to Rabbi Delson rabbidelson@templese.com

LIBRARY NEWS

Happy New Year! I hope everyone's holidays were fun and happy. Vacation is a great time to catch up on your reading. Our library has many fine books on Jewish subjects for you to enjoy.

I found a copy of Chaim Potok's first novel The Chosen, the story of an unlikely friendship between the son of a Russian Hasidic Rebbe and the son of an Orthodox Talmud scholar and teacher. They met playing baseball on opposing teams in the 1940's during World War II. The deeply conservative Hasidim looked down on the more modern Yeshiva that taught more English subjects than required and taught its Jewish subjects in Hebrew rather than Yiddish. The Hasidim played with great fervor because they hated the more modern Yeshiva. It is one of my favorite books.

For more insight into Hasidism, we have In Praise of the Baal Shem Tov translated by Dan Ben Amos and Jerome R. Mintz. It was originally published in Hebrew and in Yiddish in 1815. It tells us about time gone by and the faith of the Hasidim followers of the Baal Shem Tov, the founder of the movement of Jewish Mysticism that was so powerful in Russia.

We will have Temple Book Club on Thursday, January 11 at 10:30AM in the Temple Lounge. I will discuss the book by Cathleen Schine, Kunstlers in Paradise. The public library system has 10 copies.

In 1939, the Kunstlers escaped Vienna just as Hitler was about to annex Austria. They fled to the colony of Jewish artists and writers in Southern California. The name of the town that was their new home was Paradise. There in nearby Hollywood, they found many other Jewish writers and musicians including Thomas Mann, Arnold Schoenberg, Christofer Isherwood, and even Greta Garbo.
