RABBI'S REFLECTIONS

February, 2023/Shevat-Adar 5783

February is the longest, shortest, coldest month. I think we can agree on that. For me, three secular events make this month tolerable: Groundhog Day, Valentine's Day and whatever date this month pitchers report for spring training (as you may remember, I am a forlorn fan of the Pittsburgh Pirates, which serves as much as a minor league team as the Toledo Mudhens here).

Two events in the Jewish calendar, however, fill me with hope. The first is Tu B'Shevat, or the New Year of the Trees, which comes Sunday-Monday, February 5-6. It is on this day in Israel that the sap runs down the trunks of trees so we know that the vital juices of the world are unfreezing.

The second is Rosh Chodesh Adar, or the new moon of the month of Adar, which is February 21-22 this year. Our wise Rabbis taught, Mi she-nich-nas Adar marbin b'simcha – "Whoever enters Adar increases happiness."

What makes for this happiness? Well, besides spring training, the lavender in the Galilee is in full bloom (I've seen it up close). Adar also means that Purim is coming, with its topsy-turvy joy! Dressing up, indulging in food and drink (I'm a sucker for poppyseed hamantaschen, prune, not so much). This year Purim is Monday-Tuesday March 6-7. I also love a good Purim spiel, especially one that makes Queen Vashti a hero!

This year, as you may know, Disney songs are at the heart of this year's Shomer Emunim Purim Spiel. So by the time Adar comes, I'm all set to just "Let It Go!" (from "Frozen"). I won't be with you for this year's spiel so I hope you will "Remember Me" (from "Coco").

Although I'll miss Purim, I will be in town for St. Patrick's Day, another occasion to enjoy ourselves thoroughly! Although it will have been a month, don't worry, "I Know The Way" (from Moana) back to this wonderful synagogue!

Whether you survive February with marathon viewings of the movie "Groundhog Day" (it's actually a very religious film!), eating the fruit of different trees for Tu B'Shevat, partaking of copious amounts of chocolate for Valentine's Day, reveling in the onset of Adar or just hoping that pitchers get down to Florida or out to Arizona without hurting themselves, I wish you the blessing of hope for a calm end to winter and a lovely spring to come.

On a personal note – I am delighted that my colleague and personal friend, Rabbi Julie Schwartz, will be visiting Temple the first Shabbat this month. She has been a powerful role model for generations of Rabbis who studied for ordination at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion in Cincinnati (where I was ordained in 1983). I am thrilled that you will have the opportunity to learn Torah and be inspired by her. Rabbi Schwartz is a treasure!

L'Shalom,

Rabbi Jamie Gibson

Temple Scholar-in-Residence

Rabbi Julie Schwartz will be joining us at The Temple February 3 and 4 as Scholar-in-Residence. She will lead Shabbat Services with Cantor Roher on Friday, February 3.

Services will immediately be followed by Shabbat Dinner

$6 for children 10 and under.

New members of the Temple (joined the Temple since September 2020) are guests of the Temple.

Matzoh Ball Soup, Roasted Chicken, Brisket, Salad Bar and Baked Idaho and Sweet Potato Bar.

Rabbi Schwartz is Associate Professor of Clinical Pastoral Education and Pastoral Care at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion in Cincinnati, OH. Among her duties each year are teaching the foundational course in human relations, conducting a retreat on Rabbinic Ethics, and serving as the Rabbi for the chapel. She also teaches a rotation of elective courses including Psychology and Film: Finding Our Convergents, Life Cycle and Transitions, and Spiritual Techniques and Mindfulness.

Her many credits include Senior Rabbi, Temple Emanuel of Greater Atlanta; Director, Rabbinic Alumni Association, Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion/Director of Continuing Rabbinic Education; and Chaplain, LT United States Naval Reserve, Stationed at Oakland Naval Hospital. Rabbi Schwartz has the distinction of being the first woman rabbi to serve as an active duty military chaplain.

LIBRARY NEWS

Since February is the shortest month of the year, I am offering some short children's books.

JERUSALEM OF GOLD: JEWISH STORIES OF THE ENCHANTED CITY, retold by Howard Schwartz. This book is the Winner of the National Jewish Book Award and the Aesop Prize of the American Folklore Society.

I CAN CELEBRATE THE JEWISH HOLIDAYS by Joel Lurie Grishaver and illustrated by David Bleicher.

Both books will be on the table in front of the Temple Office in February for anyone to sign out and then return when you are finished. Please leave the sign out card with your name, address, and phone number in the Temple Office.

Book Club will resume in May when the weather is warmer and people are back from Florida. Lynn Jacobs wants to discuss Michael Oren's book ALLY, about the relationship between Israel and the United States. Please call Temple and leave a message if you are interested. We have a copy in our Temple Library.

Cole Brenner Helfman will be called to the Torah on Saturday, February 25th at Temple Shomer Emunim. Cole is the son of Kristal & Todd Helfman of Sylvania, Ohio, and the younger brother of Max & Ray. He is the beloved grandson of Joseph & Wanda Bublick of Waterville, Ohio, Marleen & Richard Kramer of Novi, Michigan, and the late David Helfman of Coronado, California.

Cole is a 7th grader at Timberstone Junior High where he is a violinist in the school orchestra. Cole is an active boy scout in local Troop 154 and has already achieved Star Rank. In his spare time, Cole enjoys camping year-round with his troop, playing the piano, reading, video gaming, building LEGO, and solving his many Rubik's cubes. His family enjoys his sense of humor, wit & silliness. Cole's logical thinking & organizational skills are also worthy of being mentioned. Cole is a bright young man, and his family & friends, both near & far, are very much looking forward to his celebration!

February Concert: Tubas at the Temple!

Sunday, February 19 at 3pm

Sure, we all know of the sousaphone in the marching band, and the tuba player playing with the beer band at Oktoberfest, but did you know the tuba can sing like a cello, dance like a flute, and creates one of the most beautiful ensemble sounds possible? Find out for yourself at 3pm on Sunday, February 19, 2023, as the celebrated BGSU Tuba/Euphonium Ensemble, directed by our own Dave Saltzman, will present a concert of tuba solos and ensemble selections. Reception to follow the performance –bring your friends –this is not your ‘every day’ type of concert!

Temple Directory

The Temple hopes to print an updated directory in 2023. Before this can be accomplished, we must verify or correct the information of all Temple members. At this time, we are in need of volunteers who would be willing to make some phone calls from their homes. A volunteer would work from a page of our membership spreadsheet to try to contact Temple members who have not already been verified. We expect that it will take some time to complete this phase of the project, but having more volunteers will certainly make the job easier. Maurine Glasser and Judi Fox are going to assist in retyping our new directory once we have secured all of the data. If you think that you can assist, please email Judi at jef212@gmail.com, and she will get back to you by email or phone.

The Sylvania Township and Sylvania police departments will be participating in active training in and outside The Temple building on Wednesday, February 15 from 8am-4pm.
